From Your Pastor

I remain thankful to my mom who placed a book of daily readings from C.S. Lewis in my hand as I was leaving on a jet plane for some training in Panama years ago. I still have that very book she purchased for a young man making his vocational start in life. In the years since, that book has borne much fruit. In fact, in recent years in my Sunday morning Bible study we have taken a close look at the spiritual images in C. S. Lewis' well-known book series, The Chronicles of Narnia. Each book has a central Christian theme to communicate. For instance, the first book written, The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe, emphasizes the atonement and the resurrection. A Horse and His Boy, on the other hand, revolves around the theme of conversion.

I have been reminded of these stories and what Lewis hoped to achieve with his books because on the weekend of February 14, a special performance of "An Evening with C.S. Lewis" is coming to Milwaukee. Some authors live rent-free in our heads!

Although Lewis had been baptized as an infant and brought up in the church – his maternal grandfather was an Anglican priest – when his mom died suddenly in his youth, he started down the road of abandoning the faith in his teenage and early adult years, even describing her death as "the sinking of his Atlantis." He viewed himself as an atheist for many years. This abandonment of the faith was brought about chiefly by the schools and tutors he was assigned to, which reminds us all of how important the role of teacher is. The one who teaches us in the long run is even more important than the topic(s) we study. So, give thanks for godly teachers!

Years later Lewis was brought to repentance through the godly counsel of faithful friends. Looking back on that time Lewis described his conversion with these words in his book, Miracles: "I never had the experience of looking for God. It was the other way round; He was the hunter (or so it seemed to me) and I was the deer. He stalked me like a redskin, took unerring aim, and fired. And I am very thankful that that is how the first (conscious) meeting occurred. It forearmed one against subsequent fears that the whole thing was only wish fulfillment. Something one didn't wish for can hardly be that."

If you have felt God's arrow sink deep into your own soul – convicting of sin and assuring forgiveness – you know what C.S. Lewis is describing above. Faith is a gracious gift of God, and thus it happens by surprise, even against your will as the arrow of God's Word plunges in. One moment you are minding your own business; the next, you find yourself in God's cross hairs, as His active and sharp Word comes flying at you.

As you make resolutions for the New Year, you know you cannot resolve to have more faith because faith (or trust) is a gift from God. You cannot resolve to be converted.

You cannot will yourself into more faith anymore than you can shoot yourself with an arrow. But you can resolve to attend worship more often, where the arrows of His Word fly fast and furious.

Every analogy eventually limps, so it might sound as if worship were a dangerous place. Why would I want to go someplace where I might get "shot." Well, for your old Adam, worship is a dangerous place. For him it is a deadly place, where God's Law puts to death the sinful nature inherited from Adam and Eve. For the new man within, however, created through the means of grace, worship is that green pasture and still water Psalm 23 proclaims. As a new creation in Christ Jesus, you know that worship is where God promises to be your Emmanuel, "God with us." Thus, you do not need to fear his arrows.

As you make your New Year's resolutions, borrow a confession from Joshua who said, "Choose this day whom you will serve, but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD" (Joshua 24:15).

Pastor Skougaard

About the cover artwork: In Luke 2:22-35, we read about Mary and Joseph bringing the baby Jesus to the Temple for His presentation to the Lord and for Mary's purification in fulfillment of the Law's demand. (This is celebrated in the Church's calendar on Feb 2.) In that context the Holy Family meets Simeon who was promised by God that he would not die before he had seen the promised Savior, whom he gets to hold in his own hands! What a joy for Simeon! We get a chance to express that same joy every time we receive the Lord's body and blood at the Communion rail and then return to our seats, singing the Song of Simeon, the Nunc Dimittis. But another aspect this painting communicates is the gift of life given to parents. There's something special about seeing parents with their newborns. At the end of January, Friday the 24th specifically, Christians across the nation will participate in the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. EGL will participate this year for the first time, thanks to the generosity of the EGL Foundation, sending a delegation to bear witness to the gift of life so that all parents would treasure their children and not give in to the deceitfulness of abortion.

The Nunc Dimittis

²⁹"Lord, now you are letting your servant depart in peace, according to your word; ³⁰for my eyes have seen your salvation ³¹that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, ³²a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel."

Luke 2:29-32

The morning group of LWML will meet on Wednesday, January 8, 2020 in the BAAC at 10:00 a.m. The Bible study is found on page 19 in the fall edition of Lutheran Woman's Quarterly. The title of this study is "The Pharaoh's Daughter," which explores the emotions and feelings of Pharaoh's daughter, Moses' mother, and Miriam the sister of Moses. We see how God guided and protected Moses. Plan to attend. Bring a friend.

The evening group of LWML will meet on Monday, January 13, 2020 in the Friendship Library at 7:00 p.m. The mission project will be cutting and making crosses from greeting cards. These cards will be sent to Orphan Grain Train for use in the mission field. What a worthwhile endeavor!

A big thank you to all congregation members who contributed their "mites" by filling the LWML Mite Boxes. Sherri Bond, EGL LWML Treasurer, is happy to report that the total mites donations for the year 2019 totaled $1,175.86. This is $150.00 more than the total for 2018. To God be the glory!

Mission Outreach for At-Risk Women in Africa – Lutheran Hour Ministries is National LWML Mission Grant #3 for $100,000. The purpose of the grant is to identify at-risk women to connect them to the church. These programs are to disrupt the cycle of poverty by teaching income-producing trades. This will help these women to find success economically and bring the Gospel message to them as they come to church.

2020 LWML Winter Getaway will take place on February 7 and 8, 2020 at the Marriott Milwaukee West Hotel located at W231N1600 Corporate Court in Waukesha, WI 53186. This is sponsored by the Young Women of LWML SWD with the theme being "Encouraged by Christ to Encourage Others." "Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing." 1 Thessalonians 5:11 The registration fee of $60 includes Saturday breakfast and lunch. The deadline for registration is January 17, 2020. The keynote speaker is Pastor Brent Smith, the Mission Development Counselor at Mission Central LCMS in Iowa. You will learn so much about Lutheran missions from this enthusiastic speaker. Servant events and projects to be given to needy people in the area are scheduled for Friday afternoon. Bible study will be led by Pastor Peters, Senior LWML Pastoral Counselor. The In-gathering will be given to SOS Ministries. The offering will be given to LCMS SWD Urban Ministry (75%) and Female Church Worker Scholarships (25%). Plan to attend this inspiring LWML Retreat. Take advantage of this retreat being so near to us. Come for one of the days or both days. You are sure to be inspired and blessed. Questions? Contact Jean Kruse.

During the season of Epiphany, we rejoice as the Wise Men did in seeking Jesus. "Where is He who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw His star when it rose, and have come to worship Him."

YOUR ELECTED LEADERSHIP

eleven times a year but members also give of their time to prepare for these meetings by serving on various committees within each board. We acknowledge and understand that service to our Lord is freely given through love and faith with no thought of self, but we also hope that the efforts and personal experience of these board members will inspire and motivate others to get involved in various ways in our church. We sincerely thank all of these board members for their service to Elm Grove Lutheran Church and School.

The Board of Evangelism is tasked with developing and maintaining an evangelism program in the congregation and community at large. This work includes enlisting members to participate in an outreach program to the unchurched and other interested persons as well as maintaining a program of assimilation of new members including using their spiritual gifts in the congregation. Members of this board serve for two years. They would welcome another member to join them in this important work!

Current board members are Jessica Olbrot, Debbie Weller, Jen Wintheiser, and Donna Corder.

Over the last several months, we have placed in front of you those whom you have elected as officers to serve and lead on the six constitutionally mandated boards. All of the boards meet

Advent by Candlelight 2019

It was a delight to see our candlelit fellowship hall filled with ladies of all ages gathered to prepare their hearts for Advent through the Word, music, message, and fellowship. We thank all who attended and brought family and friends to Advent by Candlelight, December 1. We especially thank our inspiring speaker, Janet Peterson from Acacia Theatre, and our talented musicians, Madeline Hedtke, Julianne Skovgaard, Laura and Gene Traas. Our wonderful emcees were Karen Clark and her sister Karlene Joseph. Our thoughtful Advent wreath reflection readers were Linda Hoffmann, Joan Knuteson, Kris Nitschke, and Shari Schulz. We thank Sherri Bond and Jean Kruse who warmly welcomed guests.

We appreciate each of our table decorators: Barbara Alles, Jean Bennett, Karen Clark/Karlene Joseph, Linda Hoffmann, Joan Knuteson, Jean Kruse/Irma Witzke, Kristen Murphy, Shari Schulz, Sue Schmalzer, and Shelly Skovgaard for sharing their treasured china, linens, silver, and decorations to create the beautiful tables for us. A special note of appreciation to Joan Knuteson for sharing her lovely fabrics, lights, and decorations to enhance our setting. We thank those who brought the delectable appetizers and desserts and Gayle Berry and Meg Grell who helped serve them. Another thank you to Kristen Murphy and daughters for mixing and serving the punch. It was wonderful afternoon of peace and joy, reflection and fellowship.

We could not have transformed the fellowship hall without the help of our faithful crew who set-up and put away: Barbara Alles, Jean and Dave Bennett, Dennis Braun, (who also handled the sound system), Jerry Hogan, Joan Knuteson, Diane and Jim Olson, and Irma Witzke. A very special thank you to the Bennetts and Linda Hoffmann who put in many extra hours when they were needed most.

Our generous free will offering of $1,100 was sent to our missionary in Taiwan, Rev. Dr. Michael and Jen-Yi "Helen" Paul, through LCMS.

We give thanks and praise to God for the many blessings for this event, but most of all for His gift of our priceless Savior, Jesus.

BREAD & FISH

MANY, MANY THANKS to all the people of Elm Grove Lutheran for their generosity this past year. Your continued donations of money amounted to $1,360 which allowed Bethany, Holy Ghost, Hope, and Mission of Christ Lutheran Churches to purchase food at Feeding America & Hunger Task Force for their food pantries. We also distributed 212 boxes of clothes, 46 boxes of food (which included 40 boxes from our Thanksgiving collection, mostly from our grade school children) eleven boxes of blankets for the Orphan Grain Train, 30 boxes of clothes and five sleeping bags to the Milwaukee Homeless Vets, and made many trips to Blessed Again and the Economy Center resale shops.

The churches and resale shops say THANK YOU VERY MUCH for your donations of clothes, food, household items and money. Also, your continued donations of blankets & quilts, motel sized soaps, shampoo, lotion, pillar candles, etc. are greatly appreciated by the folks of the Orphan Grain Train for shipment to people in need around the world.

The Bread & Fish Committee say THANK YOU VERY MUCH.
Keep up the good work!

ATTENTION YOUNG ADULTS AND PARENTS OF YOUNG ADULTS

We are looking to start a group for young adults from post high school to ages 30-35. EGL had such a group over 30 years ago, but it eventually faded away. Let's resurrect it! We are asking all young adults from the nine South Wisconsin District Circuit 5 congregations to fill out a survey to help us gauge interest in and the direction of such a group. You can find the survey on p. 7. Invite your friends to fill out a survey too! College students this is also for you. Even if you aren't around during the school year, you can participate in summer or on school breaks. We anticipate the first meeting being in early 2020. Parents of young adults, please encourage them to fill out the survey. If they don't want to fill it out, we would appreciate you letting us know why they aren't interested. Also please pray for this ministry that God would bless and lead it. Questions can be directed to Sue and Bruce Wilcox at 262-574-0051 or suew14237@gmail.com. (We met 30 years ago through the young adult ministry that existed at EGL back then.)

CRUCIFIXES FOR CLASSROOMS

At its December 3 meeting the Board of Directors for the EGLC Foundation approved a grant request to fund the creation of 15 wooden crucifixes for display in EGL's school classrooms. Both the corpus and the cross beams were made from the charred remains of the trusses at historic Trinity Lutheran Church downtown Milwaukee, following the devastating fire that struck Trinity on May 15, 2018. Those trusses were harvested from old growth Wisconsin trees 150 years ago. Pastor Skovgaard worked with the owner of Zuehlsdorf Woodworks in West Allis to create these unique crosses as a focal point for our school children. This project builds on the confessional ties that bind three congregations together: Elm Grove Lutheran, Historic Trinity, and Mt. Olive where the Zuehlsdorf family has their membership. Thanks to the Foundation for their investment in this project!

Young Adult Ministry Survey

We are looking to see who and how many persons would be interested in forming a group of young adults from post-high school to ages 30-35. This would be an opportunity for young adults to study the Bible and socialize together. Please fill out this survey to help us determine your interest. We will gather the information and will have a get-together after the Holidays.

PUT ON THE FULL ARMOR OF GOD

Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground.

Ephesians 6:13 (NIV)

A NEW YEAR, A NEW DECADE, A FRESH START

As we begin this new decade and have a chance for a fresh start, I am reminded that as baptized Christians, every morning we get to begin each day with a fresh start. Every day our sins are drowned in the waters of baptism, and we can begin each day with our sins forgiven. Many of us think about New Year's resolutions and might tend to focus more on those with the start of a new decade. Most of those resolutions end up being temporary. Every day we fight a struggle with sin, we want to do what God wants and always make the right choices, but we always fail in that endeavor. Because Jesus won the victory over sin and paid the price for us, God is always there to forgive every one of our sins and give us a fresh start every time. As you celebrate the new decade and daily remember that you are a baptized child of God, know that you always have a fresh start with your Heavenly Father because of the work of Christ our Savior. Praise be to God! Happy New Year!

“SCREENAGERS: Growing Up in the Digital Age”

Kids spend on average 6.5 hours a day on screens and that doesn't include classroom or homework screen time. Boys spend on average the equivalent of 1.5 days on video games every week. Some recent studies show us that screen time increases dopamine production and causes behavior that mimics addiction.

These are just a few of the alarming statistics that are explored in the SCREENAGERS Documentary. The movie doesn't just give a laundry list of problems with screens though, it goes further. It discusses how to put the time at a healthy level. It gives parents not only the research based information, but gives them strategies to assist with the issue.

This is one of the biggest, unexplored parenting issues of our time.” Have you felt confused about how much screen time is appropriate or healthy? Have you questioned how much you should monitor your child's screen time, especially in regard to smart phones, social media, or gaming? This documentary explores this issue looking into the physiological impacts of screen time for our children and what parents and teachers can do about it.

Please join us for a free showing of this documentary at Elm Grove Lutheran School on January 26 from 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm with a discussion after the viewing. We encourage parents to bring their children ages 10 and older with them to the showing and participate in the discussion after. Please go to <https://www.screenagersmovie.com/find-a-screening> and register for this event. This event is open to the public so feel free to invite other families that would like to learn more about this topic.
