Rejoice (Stanzas 5-10)

First Reading

Acts 16:9–15

⁹A vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing there, urging him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." ¹⁰And when Paul had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go on into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

¹¹So, setting sail from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis, ¹²and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days. ¹³And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. ¹⁵And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

Revelation 21:9–14, 21–27

⁹Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb." ¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. ¹²It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were inscribed— ¹³on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. ¹⁴And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. . . .

²¹And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

²²And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. ²³And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

²⁴By its light will the nations walk, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it, ²⁵and its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there. ²⁶They will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. ²⁷But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

John 16:23–33

²³[Jesus said:] “In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. ²⁴Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

²⁵“I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; ²⁷for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. ²⁸I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

²⁹His disciples said, “Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! ³⁰Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God.” ³¹Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe? ³²Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me. ³³I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

P O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

CHRISTIAN SYMPATHIES are extended to Amy & Matt

Stroh and their family upon the death of Amy's mother, Sue Purath, who died on Saturday 5/14. She was given Christian burial this past Saturday. "I know that My Redeemer lives..."

ASCENSION:

Thursday, May 26, is the celebration of our Lord's ascension to the right hand of God the Father almighty. This is the 4th of the 5 major festivals of the Church year. Those are Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension, and Pentecost. EGL will observe this day at the 6:30 p.m. Communion Service on May 26. The music and theme will be different from the upcoming Sunday service, which will focus on the 6th Sunday of Easter.

MEMBERSHIP

LETTER: You can expect to find a letter in your "snail" mailbox very soon. This is a Hirtenbrief -- a Shepherd's Letter -- from your Pastors and the Board of Elders dealing with membership at EGL. We all acknowledge that the last couple of years have been a difficult period of time for everyone. Out of pastoral concern for those who might have fallen through the cracks because of Covid-related habits, conflict, or anything else, look for this letter. It's important that you read it closely and set up a time to meet with one of your Pastors in the near future. Your Pastors will meet with you in your homes or via Zoom, if you are far from home, if that is more convenient for you.

SUMMER WORSHIP

SCHEDULE: The summer worship schedule at EGL runs from Memorial Day to Labor Day. Following Memorial Day, May 30, the schedule changes. For ease in remembering, the only change is to Sunday morning; the Thursday evening service at 6:30 p.m. remains the same, alternating Communion Services as we do during the rest of the year. Sunday mornings, however, we move from offering services at 8:00 and 10:45 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. only. Holy Communion will be offered at every Sunday morning service.

DECISIONS FROM RECENT VOTERS ASSEMBLY: At the regular May 16 Voters Assembly a couple of big decisions were made, including the demolition of both the 805 and 755 Terrace Drive houses. Following the fire at 755 our insurance company declared that property totaled. In addition to some smoke damage in 855, some pre-existing repair issues, coupled with the plans to move the care of children completely into the main school building, the consensus was to demolish both buildings and decide at a later point what to do, if anything, with the vacant property. Also ratified at the VA was the next fiscal year budget, beginning July 1. It is a deficit budget, and thus will be a stretch for us, but do-able. Look for more details in the near future.

MEMORIAL DAY AT OAK HILL CEMETERY:

If you're looking for a great, small-town America-type of celebration on Memorial Day, consider joining your community at Oak Hill Cemetery on Brookfield Road just north of the original campus of the Brookfield Academy [3490 N. Brookfield Rd]. The Behling Kutchera American Legion Post 296 has organized and hosted this 10:00 a.m. event for nearly 20 years.

SUNDAY SCHOOL:

Last day of Sunday School. Acts 12: The Word of God is never proclaimed in vain. Though we suffer because of the sins of others, God's Will is done.

CALLING ALL GRADE SCHOOL, HIGH SCHOOL, and COLLEGE GRADUATES (or, parents thereof):

This is the time of year when many graduations are taking place. If you are a grade school, high school, or college graduate please submit a photo of yourself along with info on any future school plans or employment plans to Amy Stroh (astroh@egl.org) . We would like to feature your accomplishments in our monthly SEASONS. God's richest blessings to each and every one of you as you follow the plans God has in store for you!
