NOVEMBER 8 ELECTIONS: Yes, it is important for us to vote because elections have consequences, often very serious ones. But it's important for us to vote also because it's part of our stewardship of the time, talents, and treasures that God has given us. God expects you as an American to be a good steward of the life He has given you and me. He gave us this good land and form of government for our heritage, with all of its blessings and warts. I often marvel at how our system has a built-in, self-correcting mechanism. We have a way to correct and change course as needed. But that depends on a well-informed and participating electorate. If you want men and women who represent your views, you need to elect them. Don't assume someone else will do it.

WORSHIP TIME SURVEY: Included at the end of this newsletter is a survey from the Board of Elders, asking for your thoughts on holding only one service on Sunday mornings (as we've done in the summer months for the last couple of years). Please complete this and return it to the back of the Church.

MISSION SERVICE THANKS: Dear Rick, Choir, and Guest Musicians, worship last week at Elm Grove was, to use a trite phrase, "uplifting" not merely in its artistic expression and performance, but because at every turn it was a living expression of the living and abiding word of God. You and the many musicians put in many, many hours of planning and rehearsal, and the results were obvious -- to God be the Glory, as old JSBach used to say. The African hymn with drum accompaniment as Introit was well done, and we got a chance to hear Rick as cantor (the first time in my memory). Thanks! Kudos also on choosing hymns of varied backgrounds and sources, all of which raised our sights beyond our myopic view of our own little tired lives, to grasp the fullness of God's love in Jesus and the mission he has given to his church and EGL. As always, the stanzas were masterfully interpreted tonally by you at the keyboard to aptly accompany how the Holy Spirit makes music in our hearts as we open our throats to sing. To God be the Glory, indeed! -- H L Senkbeil

SCHOOL NEWSLETTER: Please know that hard copies of the weekly school newsletter are available for pick-up in the various track racks near the entrance to the church nave.
