November 2026

Blessed to be a Blessing

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Colossians 3:15-17

From Your Pastor

It's hard to believe that 2026 is already drawing to a close with these last few months! Before we know it, turkeys will be carved, pumpkin pies enjoyed, and Christmas lights displayed. But, even as one year is wrapping up, a new year is beginning in the Church. On Sunday, November 29, we begin a new Church Year.

What is the Church Year?

The Church Year is a calendar developed over the centuries that has guided Christians through the story of Scripture and its center in the ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Just as we celebrate different seasons and special days outside the Church, so we celebrate special days and seasons inside the Church as well. This calendar finds its two high points at the two high feasts of the Church: Christmas and Easter. We begin the year with the season of Advent, which prepares us both for Jesus' first coming at Christmas and his second coming on the Last Day. Then, after our celebration of Jesus' birth, we jump into the seasons of Epiphany and Lent, which point us to Jesus being revealed to all people through his ministry and the destination of that ministry: the cross and empty tomb. Lent then climaxes in Holy Week and the Easter season, as we ponder the resurrection of Jesus and how this event changes everything. The end of the Easter season then leads us into the final season of the Church Year, Pentecost. This final season lasts half the year, and for good reason, because it's where we find ourselves in the story of Scripture, between Easter and the Last Day. This time immerses us in the broader ministry of Jesus and how it guides and governs our lives as Christians today. The Pentecost season wraps up as we ponder Jesus' teaching on the end times and focus our eyes on the hope of that Last Day, when Christ returns and the new creation dawns.

A Few Tidbits on This Church Year:

- Two Halves- the first half of the Church Year is the "festival" half, as it contains both Christmas and Easter. The second half is the "ordinary" half, largely consisting of the green season of Pentecost. Typically in the first half of the Church Year, all three Scripture readings you hear will be coordinated and connected in some way. In the second half, the Old Testament and Gospel readings are typically connected, but we get the opportunity to do some continuous reading through epistles that may not be explicitly connected to the other readings.

- Epistles- a few epistles we'll be reading through in the second half of this year are 1 John, 2 Corinthians, Ephesians, James, and Hebrews.
- Gospel of Mark- every year, a majority of our gospel readings will come from one of the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), allowing us to travel through the story of Jesus via a consistent voice. This last year, you may have noticed a lot of Matthew! This year, we'll be spending that time with Mark. You'll notice that portions of John's gospel are included in all three years of the lectionary so we get good exposure to all four gospels.
- Colors- a great way to teach children about the Church Year and reinforce the lectionary is pointing out the liturgical colors you'll see on the altar, lectern, pulpit, and columns during different seasons and days of the Church Year. Every weekly worship folder notates what the color is and why we use that color.

Connecting Church and Home:

The lectionary is a wonderful tool that exposes us to different parts of Scripture, all the while pointing us to Christ. In addition to being in church and hearing these readings spoken and proclaimed, the lectionary is a wonderful tool for family devotions at home. Every week in your worship folder, you'll see paragraph summaries of the readings and questions for further discussion and reflection. This can be used around the dinner table each week or wherever your family most often gathers. Consider studying the Gospel of Mark or one of the epistles we'll be reading through later in the year personally and/or as a family. By following these rhythms in church and our homes, we reinforce the gospel of Jesus over and over again to our spouses, children, and yes, even ourselves! God be with you all as we enter this new year of the Church.

Advent begins

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 29

Advent is upon us! It is a time of waiting, a time of hope, a time of preparation, a time of prayer. The prayer of the Church throughout each and every Advent season is this: "Come, Lord Jesus."

*Jesus comes to hearts rejoicing,
 Bringing news of sins forgiv'n;
 Jesus comes with words of gladness,
 Leading souls redeemed to heav'n.*

Trinity Lutheran Classical School - Update

Mr. Melvin Beversdorf, Head of School

Unless the LORD builds the house, they labor in vain who build it;..

Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD. Psalm 127

How do students learn at Trinity Lutheran Classical High School?

One way that students learn is through reading, wonder, asking questions, discussing, and pondering deep ideas. Some of the most lively discussions come in our Omnibus (History, Literature, Theology, and Philosophy) class. We read ancient primary documents / literature based on the grade level time (Ancient Greece / Rome, Early Christian - Medieval, Reformation, Colonial - Modern).

This year, the upperclassmen (11th & 12th graders) are in the colonial to modern historical time period and are discovering firsthand the American founding documents such as the Declaration of Independence, Article of Confederation, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Students dive into the Bible (John, Leviticus and Numbers so far) and doctrinal summaries such as the Formula of Concord from our Lutheran Confessions. The goal is to present ideas that have profound impact on history and our world, understand important ideas from a Christian perspective, and help students have a foundational knowledge for encountering new ideas as they cling to the true, the good, and the beautiful ideas and reality that God has revealed and given.

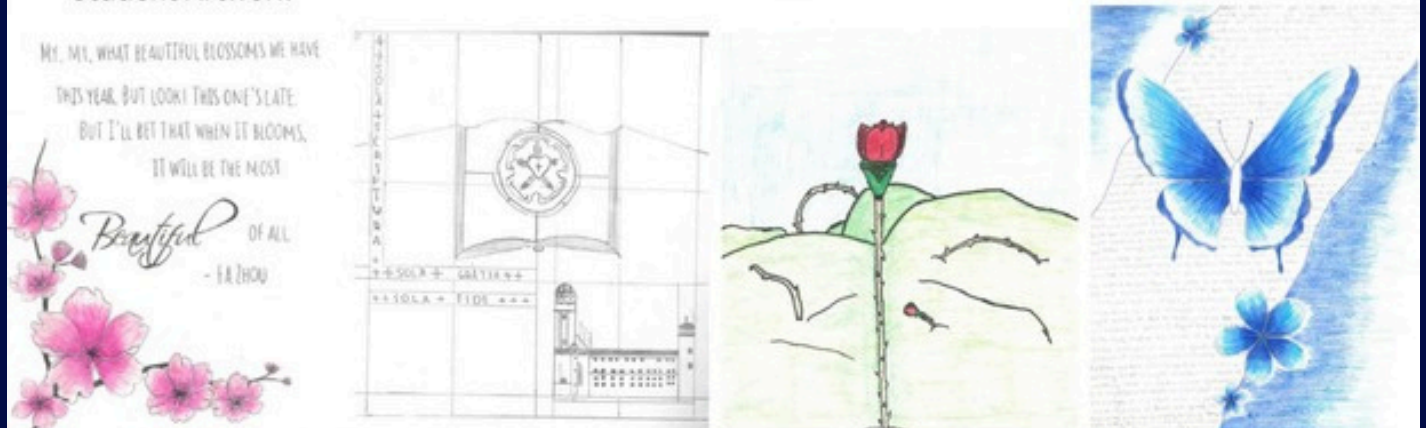

In Literature, we are currently reading the Space Trilogy (3 books) by C.S. Lewis. This imaginative science fiction allegory of the worlds (Earth, Venus, & Mars) conceptually presents students with how our relationship to God, the angels, and the demons can be imagined in a reality beyond the finite space and time. Readers wrestle with how life without original sin could have been, how creatures can get along, and how God orders all things for the good He is doing in the universe. The scholars are presented with the reality of how dark and deadly the forces of evil are and how they are to be resisted. If you liked the Chronicles of Narnia, this is a fascinating read of spiritual proportions!

In Book 1, Out of the Silent Planet, the main character, Ransom, is kidnapped and transported to Mars and encounters 3 species of creatures of varying abilities. He learns about the nature of Earth as the place where the devil is "trapped" since dismissal out of heaven. Ransom observes an unfallen world, and realizes the conflict between human will and God's will, while beginning to see how it can play out on a cosmic level.

In Book 2, Perelandra, Ransom is called upon to help preserve the innocence of Venus in a creation temptation type story. He encounters evil and learns that the struggle of truth and lies is a real one. Again a beautiful image of the relationship of God to His creations starts to be illuminated as God's will shines forth throughout the struggle.

No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. 1 Corinthians 10:13

Germany FORO 2026

by John & Nancy Wolck

At the end of September, Pr. Skovgaard led seven people from the SWD on a week-long trip for the 2nd Germany FORO.

A FORO is an gathering of LCMS missionaries - in a particular country - hosting interested folks to witness, learn about and support their efforts. German missions are part of the LCMS Eurasia region. Our host, Pr. Christian Tiews, will preach at EGL on Nov. 8. Be there!!

In Germany, LCMS missionaries partner with SELK, the confessional Lutheran denomination there. Therefore, our LCMS outreach is not to the native German people (SELK's focus).

Our efforts are aimed at three groups:

- Immigrant Persians from Iran and Afghanistan
- English-speaking Expats
- Ukrainian refugees

This FORO was even better than last year's!

- Missionaries continue focused and excited to proclaim Christ

Fervor to preach Christ, plant Lutheran churches and share God's mercy is contagious!

- Missions are thriving and expanding

The Persian project in Hamburg, Leipzig and Steglitz are thriving (we worshipped with Pr. Martens' huge congregation of Persians and experienced their joy in Christ's gifts) and three Iranians are taking seminary classes through the Luther Academy online seminary in Riga; Expat work is expanding in Frankfurt and Kaiserslautern; and the Ukrainian Church, the only confessional Lutheran one in Wittenburg draws many to Christ by Word and Sacrament using the Eastern Rite form of worship. It was a special joy to meet and eat with many Persians and Ukrainians served by our missionaries!

- New missionaries have joined the field

Pr. Jeff & Deaconess Gina Teeple (Frankfurt Expats), Vicar Peter Williams (Eurasia), Sean McHugh (Eurasia) and Pr. Charles Ferry (Eurasia)

- New progress in translating liturgy and hymns into Persian

In Leipzig we heard Deaconess Kim Bueltmann's musical efforts to make beautiful, faithful translations of Lutheran liturgy and hymns into Persian, including their unique musical style and poetry.

- We visited historical sites significant to the Reformation

We toured the Wartburg Castle and J.S. Bach's childhood home in Eisenach; delighted in the restored beauty of historic St. Lukaskirche in Leipzig; enjoyed a huge 360° mural of "Reformation Times" (with a no-gospel audio explanation) and gently handled ancient documents at the impressive Reformation Research Library & Archive.

EGL Stammtisch!!

Guys! Lots to be THANKFUL for this and every year...Let's celebrate our Christian faith with fellowship and fun on Thursday, November 19, from 7:30-9:00 (ish) p.m.

Again, the November EGL Stammtisch will be at the EGL Bartelt Center.

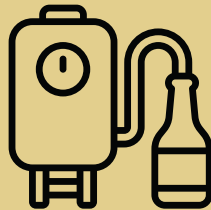

Bring your favorite beverage and snacks to share (and a friend?) Any questions? Contact Bruce Bessert by phone/text at 414-526-8430, or by email at bruce.bessert@gmail.com

In ancient Egypt, beer production was a respected profession carried out primarily by women.

During the Bubonic Plague, beer was often considered safer to drink than local water supplies because the boiling and fermentation process reduced contamination risks.

The Sermon on the Mount

Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him.

The Beatitudes

And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Honoring all Veterans

Veterans Day occurs on Wednesday, November 11 and is a holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars. It became a federal holiday in the United States in 1938. In November 1918 during World War I—at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of that year—an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany.
